AMONG THE RAILROADS

A CHICAGO AND KANSAS STORY OF RAILROAD DEFICITS.

The anticipation of Santa Claus cannot affect that the establishment's low prices on gas and petroleum and the scarcity of the air cars and the high rates have forced private car owners to the extremest economies in the matter of their cars for the last four days. There is a decrease of over 2,000 cars. The car goods, of gasoline, of petroleum, have not the effects, and Pullmans and Wagner cars are getting full forty-eighths passengers, and sometimes a car or more that are otherwise empty are coupled to the Santa Fe trains for Kansas City. Kansas farmers cannot afford to sell their corn at the prevailing prices, and consequently

THE PLACE TO LIVE.

Hit Square on the Head and
A Bear on Top!

A Board of Trade man says that a bear market is not a bare market. But if a bare market is not a bear market, pray what can a bear market be? Well, when we sell a Cherry Finished Bedroom Suit for $14.50 that ought to bring Boy and Girl Bruin face to face; and an All-Wool Ingrain Carpet at 45c, worth 65c, that's a bear market. Just when we need our cubs most after our long country tours and will have plenty, that isn't a bare market.

Further with us a moment while we quote a few bear prices:

Being located on the West Side,

OUR VERY LOW EXPENSES

Enable us to offer the following

Money-Saving Inducements!

WHY PAY

Do you pay 10c for a Silk on the South Side? We will sell you a better one for 7c.

Why buy a Velvet at 25c per yard? We will sell you one equally as good at 19c, and the assortment complete. Select qualities in proportion.

Why pay $5.00 for a Blanket? We will sell you one Extra Size Wool at $3.50, and guarantee it as good.

Why pay Ulsters like high-cost merchants do, $15 for a Fast Finish Cloak? We will sell you a better one for $10.00, with cord ornaments, elegantly produced, and fine satin lining. Good length and latest cut.

We will sell you a magnificent Astrachan Jacket in any color or size, newest cut and trimmings, at $15.00, and save you from $5.00 to $10.00.

If you want a Wrap of any kind we will guarantee to save you money.

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION OF THE MAINE MAN IN PHILADELPHIA.

A Mile Reaching Four Thousand Persons Fail Short for the Young Man Who Long Resided Hardings His Hospitable Mansion—Speech of All This Attention Elicited—Sought to Secure Such a Demonstration for Gen. Grant in September—Big Torchlight Procession.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 10.—[Special.]—Gen. J. Donald Cameron has failed to secure for the Republican State ticket tonight such enthusiastic demonstration as was given to Hon. James G. Blaine by the Young Republican Club, one of the leaders of the conservative partisan organizations here, and which embraces among its members a majority of the solid business men of the city. The meeting was held in the Academy of Music, an immense auditorium, and the enthusiasm displayed was unbounded. Mr. Blaine himself was not present, but his portrait was there, and that was the object of the demonstration. Gen. Cameron, who presided, and who was the first speaker, was applauded for fully ten minutes when he arose, and the cheering was renewed again and again during the course of his remarks. Mr. Blaine's name was the one which brought out the greatest applause, and the mere mention of it was sufficient to start the audience cheering. Gen. Cameron's speech was a strong one, and was frequently interrupted by applause. He said in part:

"Gen. Grant, the Maine Guard said, 'I will shake you, but not a blank man's hand.' I guess the last man who shook Grant's hand was Jefferson Davis, and I guess he has not got a pleasant memory about it himself."

"Shake hands with me or get down!" would be said to the secessionists.

"Gen. Grant," the Maine Guard said, "I will shake you, but not a blank man's hand."

Senator Lodge would often exclaim: "Gentlemen, I refuse your vote. The Democratic record is not commendable enough to have you vote for Blaine."

Grant had 50,000 voters here from prominent families, many of whom the southern men had known in their childhood days. He tried to get them to vote for Grant, but they refused. Then he said: "Gentlemen, I refuse your votes. I will not accept them. I will not be elected by them."

A. W. WADDELL NOMINATED AS ONE REPUBLICAN.

He Will Give Lyster a Close Race This Fall and Probably Beat Him—Democrat Decides Not to Run Against Republican Candidate in Lockwood.

Charles H. Waddell was nominated for Congress in the Democratic district convention, which met last night at the Palmer House. Waddell is a Republican, but has been asked to run by the Democrats and Populists. Waddell is a son of the late Hon. John Waddell, who was for many years a prominent Democrat of Cook county. He is a lawyer by profession, and has been a resident of Chicago for many years. He is a member of the Union League club, and is well known in business circles. He is a man of fine appearance, and will make a good run for the office. He is a Republican, but has always been a Democrat in politics, and has been a delegate to many Democratic conventions. He is a member of the Hamilton club, and is well known in that organization. He is a man of fine appearance, and will make a good run for the office. LAST DAYS RACING AT THE GRAVESEND AND LATONIA TRACK.

The Last Events Against the Clock—The Attendance Not Sufficient to Cover Expenses—The Finish at Philadelphia—Record for Three Fingernails Broken—Latonia Handicap Gallaher at Cincinnati—The Run-Out Championship Goes Higher at Chicago Tournament.

New York, Oct. 10.—[Special.]—The fall racing season in the history of this city came to the Gravesend track, and the Brooklyn Jockey Club presented a special program for the occasion. The features were a sale of a lot of three-year-olds, which proved a failure, and a match race between Domino and Yorkville Belle. The latter was to endeavor to beat the track record of 1:39½ to secure possession of $1,000 in addition to the purse. Although the day was favorable for fast time, the track was not in good condition, although it was not heavy enough to stop the horses. Domino won the match race, but failed to beat the record, although he was given a pace by Yorkville Belle. The attendance was not sufficient to cover expenses. The summaries:

First race, selling, five furlongs—Ben Brush, 110 (Littlefield), 4 to 1, 1; Ben Eder, 110 (Hamilton), 3 to 1, 2; Ben Ali, 110 (Hewitt), 3 to 1, 3. Time, 1:04.

Second race, selling, one mile—Kingston, 110 (Littlefield), 3 to 1, 1; Ben Eder, 110 (Hamilton), 3 to 1, 2; Ben Ali, 110 (Hewitt), 3 to 1, 3. Time, 1:41½.

Third race, selling, one mile—Domino, 110 (Littlefield), 3 to 5, 1; Yorkville Belle, 110 (Hamilton), 3 to 1, 2; Ben Ali, 110 (Hewitt), 3 to 1, 3. Time, 1:41½.

Fourth race, selling, one mile—Ben Brush, 110 (Littlefield), 3 to 1, 1; Ben Eder, 110 (Hamilton), 3 to 1, 2; Ben Ali, 110 (Hewitt), 3 to 1, 3. Time, 1:41½.

Ring-Kissing in High Command for the Longer Heads—The Serious Matter-Fight Ahead of the Committee Men—The Record Against the Latest Acts of Incompetent Councilmen—Conference Committee to Attack Mayor's Report Before Acting.

Preparations are being made by both parties in the Board Rooms for a long siege. All the politicians are beginning to take to work again, and to-morrow there will most likely be a resumption of wire-pulling in the down-town lobbies. The signs that an organized fight is to be made on the Democratic side are to be found in the fact that the Democratic Committee of Fifty has been called together for to-morrow afternoon, and that the Democratic Executive Committee has been summoned to meet at the same time. Although the figures are not given out, it is very probable that 1,000 men.

The first open act of hostilities on the part of the workers in their interests occurred during the evening from their assistant a branch of organization in the north. Private Secretary, a member for Aldermen A. M., was busily engaged. The Democrats were not waiting for organization for the expected meeting on Monday and are throwing their forces. The reports of their combined management the Tribune is very much glad it is to be possible for them to produce any portion of Democratic workers at their meeting. The Democrats are proud that business will be carried on and nothing to the exception efficacy and management, and were quite frequently called on to make a talk to private their interests, but were easily put to flight. The Democrats are to impress their opponents with the fact that they are in earnest and that they mean business. In fact the present aspect of the Democratic camp is greater than that of the men who have acquainted themselves with the political situation.

The last conference having agreed to withdraw the last remaining [illegible] in the Democratic ranks in the previous week, the Democrats have left places to [illegible] and are ready to [illegible] to the Democratic [illegible] to [illegible] to [illegible] to

ONE OLD NAME AS NEW CHURCH WILL ASSUME CHRISTIAN.

A Good Majority of the Church and a Large Majority of the Lay Delegates Vote Against the Change—The Result in the Last Hour of Convention Called Forth by the Remarks of Bp. S. Cheney Scott, Who Adopted the Resolution.

The convention that has given power to the directors to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal church from the name of [illegible] and has left to the synodical church to adopt that name from a designation of General Protestant convention, ended its long [illegible] of the Bishop of Chicago. There was another outcry of opposition on the part of some of the clergy and the laymen to the name, but the majority voted to adopt it. MY SESSION IN LITERATURE.

V.

Commission was not forthcoming. I had written Aylmer that he had been misinformed as to the real motives and facts connected with my visit to Washington, and I thought that explanation by him would have much of my letter's judgment in every respect, but in the matter of disappointment at not obtaining a consulship appointed to some of those with literary predilections and strain of character. One has but to read the biographies of the Shakespeare epoch and peruse the correspondence of Lord Bacon to see how the office-seeking tendency has been with us from the beginning. Even Lincoln, and I was then interested in the office-seeking tendency of Lincoln, I could not have helped an Irish writer like that subject of a great address. I had a large battery to provide for, and the hourly work and committee to Chase to meet the importunities of persons of every description and sort.

I always succeeded in every [illegible] of Commissioner Hewitt's department. There was Henry Bowen, of which I superintendent was the Assistant Secretary. I thought of a vacancy, but there were not so many as I supposed, for Bowen had been with Secretary Chase for many years and was in charge of a bureau, but served with Secretary Fish, and I thought him also entitled to the first place. I thought of such position as a head of a bureau, but served with Secretary Fish, and I thought of such position as a head of a bureau, but served with Secretary Fish, and I thought of such position as a head of a bureau, but served with Secretary Fish, and
